

Save the Date

NASN 2013

National Association of School Nurses 45th Annual Conference

Walt Disney World • Swan and Dolphin Hotel
Orlando, FL

June 27-30, 2013

Advocacy, Access, Achievement: Leading the Way

National Association of School Nurses

Why Attend NASN2013, THE premier conference for school nurses??

To Continue Learning . . .

- Increase your value in the workplace.
- Develop skills that you can use in your school nursing practice.
- Learn from national experts.
- Be the first to hear NASN's incoming president, Carolyn Duff of South Carolina, share her vision for the organization.

To Take Advantage of Networking Opportunities . . .

- Gather industry information.
- Get collegial support.
- Solicit insightful advice.
- Obtain professional referrals.

Dates to remember:

February 1, 2013: Registration and Room Block open

February 8, 2013: Call for Poster Presentation Abstracts deadline

April 15, 2013: Early Bird Registration deadline

May 17, 2013: Pre-registration deadline

June 26, 2013: Pre-conference

June 27-30, 2013: NASN2013

To Get a Great Educational Experience for a Low Cost . . .

- Stay in the conference hotel to get NASN's special room block rate.
- Travel with a colleague to share expenses.
- Take advantage of special discounts NASN negotiates with airlines and ground transportation providers.
- Register by the Early Bird Deadline.
- Pay just $25 per CNE contact hour (based on 20 CNE hours).
- Pay just $124 per day when you register for the 4-day event.

To visit the Sunshine State . . .

- Explore the New Fantasyland at Disney World's Magic Kingdom.
- Ride the updated Test Track at Disney World's Epcot.
- Eat out and bowl a few games at Downtown Disney's new Splitsville.
- Enjoy other exciting adventures outside of Disney. Check out The Wizarding World of Harry Potter, John F. Kennedy Space Center, and SeaWorld – to name a few.

Visit NASN.org for conference announcements!!

See you in Orlando!!